Service Consultant

Scott Seaborn's healthcare career covers over 35 years. His experience includes serving as a field paramedic, managing a regional EMS program, managing a hospital education program, serving as a healthcare human resource executive, and his most recent role as administrator of St. Joseph Memorial Hospital in Murphysboro, Illinois for six years.

As a healthcare practitioner, Scott has successfully led patient, employee, and physician satisfaction cultural change. As Vice President for Human Resources for Southern Illinois Healthcare, he led an effort that resulted in SIH being named an Employer of Choice in 2006. While Administrator for St. Joseph Memorial Hospital, employee satisfaction scores were at the 95th percentile or above nationally, and physician satisfaction scores were at the 98th percentile nationally. In 2011, St. Joseph Memorial Hospital was named a physician "Best Place to Practice" hospital by Press-Ganey.

In 2010, Scott received the "Inspiring Administrator" Summit Award at the Health Care Service Excellence Conference.

Scott holds a Master's degree in Education from Northern Illinois University.
